Nestled on the shores of Auburn Bay, this extraordinary 2,100 square foot bungalow by award-winning builder Albi Homes offers an unparalleled luxury lakefront lifestyle. The home's expansive open-concept design and 12-foot ceilings create a sense of grandeur, complemented by Farmhouse-style white oak floors and brick feature walls that lend warmth and elegance throughout. At the heart of the home lies a stunning 25-foot wide great room, offering sweeping views of the lake and anchored by a striking fireplace that invites relaxation and gatherings. The spacious primary bedroom is a serene retreat, featuring its own double-sided fireplace, which is shared with the spa-inspired ensuite. Here, luxury abounds: heated tile floors, a freestanding soaker tub, and a generous walk-in shower, along with a floating vanity adorned with marble countertops and dual sinks. An opulent dressing room with custom millwork and natural light from a dedicated window completes the suite, ensuring comfort and sophistication at every turn. The gourmet kitchen, crafted by Bow Valley Kitchens, boasts built-in WOLF appliances, a Sub Zero fridge, and a custom pantry that leads through a butler's station to the mudroom. Thoughtfully designed for modern convenience, the oversized mudroom is accessible from both the triple-car garage and the foyer, offering ample storage with floor-to-ceiling lockers, cupboards, and comfortable benches—perfect for seasonal transitions and family living. The brick wall seamlessly continues down to the basement, enhancing the vertical flow and giving the home a cohesive, unifying design element. In the basement, the continuation of the brick wall serves as a sophisticated visual connection between the two levels. The rustic charm of the brick is highlighted by ambient lighting, creating a cozy and inviting lower-level living adding over 1,800 square feet of versatile space, including two guest rooms, a family room, rec room and gym. Polished concrete floors with in-floor heating provide year-round comfort and durability, perfect for the active lake lifestyle. For serene outdoor living, the screened-in patio is ideal for hosting, with picturesque views of the lawn, lake, and private dock. Summers are filled with swimming, fishing, and paddle-boarding, while winters invite you to enjoy ice skating, hockey, tobogganing, ice fishing, and cozy lakeside gatherings. Located in a vibrant community close to premier amenities such as top-notch shopping, fitness centers, and the South Calgary Hospital, this home combines lakefront elegance with the finest in urban convenience. Experience the pinnacle of lakeside luxury with this award-winning property—where every detail is crafted for an award-winning lifestyle.
